INSUBRIA INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

EAPIL Winter School in European Private International Law: MULTISTATE TORTS

University of Insubria, Department of Law, Economics and Cultures
10th - 15th February 2025

THE WINTER COURSE

Coordinator: Silvia Marino

Scientific Committee: Silvia Marino, University of Insubria; Javier Carrascosa González, University of Murcia; Anna Wysocka-Bar, Jagiellonian University in Kraków.

Advisory Board: Marta Requejo Isidro, University of Santiago de Compostela; Tobias Lutzi, University of Augsburg; Veronica Ruiz Abou-Nigm, Edinburgh Law School; Susanne Gössl, University of Bonn; Paula Poretti, J.J. Strossmayer University of Osijek.

The European Association of Private International Law (EAPIL), together with the Department of Law, Economics and Cultures of the University of Insubria, with the Law Faculty of the University of Murcia (Spain) and the Law Faculty of the Jagiellonian University in Kraków (Poland), is organising the Second EAPIL Winter School. The 2025 edition will be devoted to “Multistate Torts”, dealing with the ongoing challenges of the treatment of torts connected with several States. Developments at the European level, both Hague Conventions and EU legislative measures will be examined, under an approach combining theory and practice, and making wide room for interaction with the attendees.
